

MAY HAVE TO CALL
AN EXTRA SESSIONTHE OUTLOOK FOR FINANCIAL BILLS GLOOMY.

Appropriation Measure Will Take Up All the Time Until March—Currency Bill Will Not Come Up Saturday—Sibley Criticizes the President's Course.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—[Special].—It is now thought that President Cleveland will have to call an extra session, as all the time until March will be taken up with appropriation bills. The rule to take a vote on the currency bill Saturday was defeated this morning and withdrawn. The outlook for financial legislation is now very gloomy. When the debate on the currency bill was resumed in the house yesterday, Mr. Peltzhoover of Pennsylvania, gave notice of an amendment. It proposes a section to enable the secretary of the treasury to fund the treasury notes which may remain in circulation after Aug. 1, 1895, which were issued under the act of Feb. 25, 1865, July 11, 1862, March 3, 1863, and July 14, 1890, by issuing bonds on an amount not exceeding $500,000,000, redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after five years, payable twenty-five years from date, with interest at 3 per cent, payable semi-annually in gold. The bonds are to be of such denominations, not less than $50, as the secretary may determine upon, and to be sold at not less than par for gold or for treasury notes.

Mr. Sibley (dem., Pa.) stirred up the house with a most bitter attack on the administration and the executive, and without form or order the debate was participated in by four or five members at one time. Finally, when order was restored, Mr. Cox (dem., Tenn.) followed with a careful argument in favor of the bill.

Mr. Stone (rep., Pa.) did not think the pending bill would relieve the treasury and the situation, nor did he in fact believe that the retirement of all greenbacks and treasury notes would check the demand for gold. If gold were required for commerce gold would be secured; if not from the treasury then from private holders. There was no reason why there should be a scarcity of gold. There was $540,000,000 in gold in this country held by banks and private holders. He thought what was wanted was the issue of a low rate bond to tide over the present emergency.

Mr. Johnson (dem., Ohio) followed Mr. Sibley's lead with a caustic speech in opposition to the measure. He said the bill proposed to confer on banks without limit a right that could only be conferred on a monopoly. It gave them a monopoly or it was a failure. Mr. Johnson sketched a scheme by which a dishonest man, entirely within the terms of this bill, could make $52,500 in two weeks by starting a bank.

Mr. Bland, the leader of the silver democrats in the house, took up his cudgel against it. He spoke with great feeling. Step by step he traced the course of those whom he alleged were carrying out a conspiracy—first the repeal of the silver purchase law and now the consummation of their plans. Mr. Bland predicted that if this bill became a law that the greenbacks would disappear, and to secure the gold standard silver would be entirely eliminated. In conclusion Mr. Bland protested against the bill in the name of democracy.

Mr. Coffeen (dem., Wyo.) concluded the debate for the day in opposition to the bill, and at 5 o'clock the house took a recess until 6 o'clock.

Hawaiian Debate in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Further debate on Mr. Lodge's resolution asking for information why the American ships had been withdrawn from Hawaiian waters took place in the senate yesterday. Mr. Palmer (dem., Ill.) defended the acts of the present administration in Hawaiian affairs. His remarks provoked a number of interruptions by republican senators, including Messrs. Lodge, Teller and Aldrich. Mr. Gray (dem., Del.) also opposed its adoption. At 2 o'clock the resolution again took its place on the calendar, and during the remainder of the day the senate listened to eulogies of Alfred H. Colquhitt of Georgia, who died recently. Remarks were made by Senators Gordon of Georgia; Hawley, Connecticut; Morgan, Alabama; Turpie, Indiana; Hill, New York; Pascoe, Florida; Martin, Kansas; and Walsh, Georgia. At 3:50 p. m. the senate adjourned.

Will Get No Bounty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The District Court of Appeals has affirmed the decision of the District Supreme court, refusing to grant the Miles Sugar Manufacturing and Planting company of Louisiana a mandamus compelling Secretary Carlisle and Internal Revenue Commissioner Miller to proceed under the law awarding sugar bounties notwithstanding its repeal by the new tariff law. The case was brought up as a test suit. An appeal to the United States Supreme court is yet open to the planters, the case having gone against them in all inferior tribunals.

The Pooling Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The senate committee on interstate commerce took up the pooling bill at its meeting yesterday morning. Chairman Butler presented a letter from Col. Morrison pointing out a serious defect in the law as it passed the house. He called the attention of the committee to the fact that under the law the interstate commerce commission was given no discretion in regard to approving any pooling contract submitted to it by the railroads. He did not ask for a specific amendment, but gave the committee to understand the law in its present shape would be unsatisfactory to the commission. The senate committee wasn't prepared to go into this matter, having been given to understand that the pooling bill as it passed the house was in every way satisfactory to the commission. Action was finally postponed until next Tuesday.

To Act on Ritchie's Charges.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Samuel J. Ritchie, who in a memorial presented to congress preferred certain charges against Judge Ricks, has left the city, expecting to return in a few days. The report of the subcommittee, which has been investigating the charges, was to have been made to the house judiciary committee yesterday, but the subject went over until to-day, when a special meeting of the full committee will be held. At that time it is probable the new charges against Judge Ricks, made by Ritchie, will be taken up.

Provision to Collect Income Tax.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The senate committee on appropriations yesterday authorized a favorable report on the urgency deficiency bill, which has been held in the committee since Dec. 17. The bill, as it will be reported to-day, will carry the provision for the collection of the income tax, and it will not contain any amendments for the alteration of the present tariff law, as at one time seemed probable. The total appropriation made is $1,863,000, which is a reduction of $143,595 from the total of the house bill.

Income Tax Test Test.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The case of John G. Moore against Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller to contest the constitutionality of the income-tax feature of the new tariff law came up yesterday in the District Supreme court and was set for a hearing on the 15th inst. in the equity branch of the court.

Yesterday's Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The meeting of the cabinet yesterday lasted fully three hours, an unusual length of time. Foreign relations formed a greater part of the discussion.

HEALY DECLARES HIMSELF.

Does Not Intend to Found a Third Irish Party.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—In an interview yesterday Timothy Healy emphatically denied that he intended to found a third Irish party or to oppose the reelection of Justin McCarthy or other nationalist leaders. He was only trying to prevent the assertion of a calamitous individual domination of the party, which denied the right of criticism and insisted upon committing the party without prior consultation to movements which afterward it was too late to repudiate. He had always supported and would continue to support Mr. McCarthy's chairmanship of the anti-Parnellite section of the party, and would resist any attempt to defeat the government on the address in reply to the queen's speech opening the coming session of parliament.

Michigan Legislature.

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 9.—In the senate yesterday Senator Smalley of Wayne gave notice of a bill providing for taxation of church property without exemption. Standing committees were announced in both houses.

In November last the Supreme court filed an opinion holding in substance that any mark on a ballot not necessary to express the voter's intention was a distinguishing mark which rendered the ballot invalid. As this ruling would render illegal 30 per cent of the votes cast last fall and change results in hundreds of instances the opinion created great consternation and a rehearing was granted. The court now concludes its former opinion was too rigid and holds that "when the name of a candidate appears on two tickets and the elector places a mark opposite the name on each ticket such ballot should be counted."

Ontario Municipal Elections.

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 9.—In the municipal elections held throughout the province of Ontario Monday the Protestant Protective association, an organization similar to the A. P. A. in American politics, elected several candidates. In Toronto there was a split in the P. P. A., and as a result Mayor Kennedy was returned by only twenty-four votes. In Hamilton A. D. Stewart, the P. P. A. candidate, was re-elected mayor. Other returns are: Ottawa, A. D. Borthwick, conservative, by 130; Kingston, Clarke W. Wright, liberal, by 200.

He Wants to Murder a Judge.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 9.—Joseph Denning of Faulkton was arrested for having come here with the avowed intention of taking the life of Judge Fuller of the Supreme court. He was looking for the judge when captured and appears crazy. Judge Fuller decided a case against him while on the circuit.

Several Persons Die from the Cold.

TOULOUSE, Jan. 9.—There were 30 degrees of frost registered here yesterday morning. The River Garonne and the Canal du Midi are frozen over. Several persons have died from the cold.

FIGHTING FOR FOOD
AT ST. JOHNS, N. F.THE UNEMPLOYED MEN IN-DULGE IN A RIOT.

Mob Breaks Into the Legislative Chamber and Demands Aid—Police Have Hard Work to Disperse Them—Work Promised in Three Days—Excitement Is High.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 9.—A great mob of unemployed men, made desperate by want, and their wives and children famished by hunger, took the law into their own hands last evening and declared that as no work was given them and they could not procure food by fair means, they proposed to resort to foul means rather than starve. The unemployed assembled early in the morning and marched to the cruiser Tormaline to see what answer the captain would make to their appeal. All he could do was to refer them to the governor. Disappointed and exasperated the men went to the governor, who could only make general promises as to relief measures to be undertaken, and then the mob went to the legislative buildings. Refused admission, they burst open the doors and surged into the corridors. The policemen on guard were powerless to drive the mob away, and the few members of the legislature present made as hasty an exit as possible. Police reserves were summoned and after a desperate struggle managed to clear the corridors. Again in the afternoon the crowd visited the legislative building, where it was met with barricaded doors and a strong police force. The crowd by this time filled the whole area in front of the building and was in a dangerous mood. A rush was made for the doors, the police were brushed aside, and many persons were injured. Premier Greene finally appeared on the balcony and promised that work should be given the men within three days, and urged peace and patience. But the mob was hungry, and from the legislative building made for several stores, which it found empty. In one store in Water street, however, a large quantity of provisions was found and confiscated. While the mob was looting the store the police appeared, but were beaten back until in self defense they charged with drawn swords. A squad of mounted police coming up at this juncture the crowd was dispersed after four of the leaders had been arrested. A guard from the Tormaline is doing patrol duty throughout the city, but further trouble is feared. Four men, Bussey, Brown, Coady and King, the promoters of the riot, were arrested. The crowd displayed an inclination to attack the police for the purpose of rescuing the prisoners, but the officers prevented this by driving the mob back and then suddenly closing the gates. The police remained inside with their prisoners while the rioters surrounded the premises hooting and stoning the officers.

ALARM IN ENGLAND.

Alleged Attempt Being Made by Americans to Control Meat Market.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—An important and largely attended meeting called by the meat and cattle section of the London chamber of commerce was held in Memorial hall last night. The meeting was the outcome of the long agitation of the London meat dealers against the attempt of American shippers to abolish the customary trade allowance of a pound in every quarter of meat to compensate for the loss of shrinkage in transit and in cutting up, which is regarded as the thin end of a wedge, aiming to capture the control of the London market. Parliament will be appealed to if it is thought there is any danger of the alleged attempt being successful. An attempt will be made to stimulate the export of cattle from Canada to England.

Looks Like Adams in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 9.—It would seem to be practically settled that Justin C. Adams of this county will be the speaker of the next house of representatives. The opposition has been slowly disintegrating and several of the candidates have withdrawn. The senate caucus adjourned without making nominations. It was resolved that the power of appointing committees, which has heretofore been lodged in the lieutenant governor, be assumed by the senate. Representatives from the Republican, Democratic and Southern Indiana Editorial association met here yesterday and considered amendments to the present libel law, which the committee will present to the legislature.

First Day of Minnesota's Session.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 9.—There was very little to mark the opening of the biennial session of the legislature yesterday. Both houses almost immediately adjourned till to-day, when Gov. Nelson's message will be read. There is absolutely no change in the general senatorial situation. The air is full of loud conflicting claims as usual, but no important variation in the attitude of the contending forces is noted.

Water Carries Away Bridges.

POMEROY, Ohio, Jan. 9.—High water has destroyed a $1,000 bridge pier for the county on Leading creek and several bridges on other streams are damaged.

CONVICTS SET FREE
BY GOVERNOR PECKFOURTEEN PARDONS SECRET-
LY ISSUED LAST WEEK.

Six of Them Had Been Sent to Waupun for Life—All the Pardons But One Were Unconditional, and That One Was Nearly So—List of the Lucky Ones.

MADISON, Jan. 9.—Shortly before stepping out from the executive chair Governor Peck affixed his signature to warrants liberating from the Waupun prison and the Milwaukee House of Correction fourteen convicts, six of whom had been sentenced to imprisonment for life.

NAPOLEON B. CROCKER, Portage county, murder in the first degree, sentenced Dec. 7, 1894, imprisonment for life.

WILHELMINA STAGG, Jefferson county, murder in the first degree, sentenced Sept. 24, 1894, imprisonment for life.

OLE J. HANSON, OLO SLETT, CHARLES JOHNSON and BERTHA OLSON, Trempealeau county, murder in the first degree, sentenced March 14, 1890, imprisonment for life.

JOHN DAHL, Marinette county, murder in the second degree, sentenced June 20, 1886, imprisonment for eighteen years.

JOHN HECHNER and WILLIAM ABRENS, Winnebago county, criminal assault, sentenced May 9, 1892, imprisonment for twelve years.

CHARLES STEIGLITZ, Marinette county, murder in the second degree, sentenced Oct. 19, 1889, imprisonment for twenty years.

GEORGE HANLEY, Milwaukee, larceny, sentenced June 27, 1892, imprisonment for five years in the Milwaukee House of Correction.

GEORGE L. MOKEFOUSE, Kenosha county, highway robbery, sentenced March 23, 1894, two years and six months.

WILLIAM BRADY, Sauk county, burglary, sentenced April 12, 1894, three years.

HOMER M'COMB, Outagamie county, abandoning his wife, sentenced July 12, 1894, eight months.

All of these pardons excepting that of the burglar Brady, was unconditional, the exaction in his case being that he must abstain for two years from the use of intoxicants. They all became effective immediately upon service on the warden of the Waupun penitentiary and the inspector of the Milwaukee House of Correction, and it is presumed that they have already been carried into effect. The pardons of Brady, Hechner and Abrens bear date of January 3, while all the others are dated January 5, which is two days before Governor Peck turned the executive department of the state administration over to his successor, and were kept secret.

Saw Winnie Smith Strike Thomas.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 9.—But one witness was examined in the Winnie Smith murder trial yesterday. Harry Whitney, the hackman who drove Smith to the resort where the killing occurred, testified on direct examination that Smith and Thomas, his victim, were intoxicated, Thomas being the more overcome of the two. The fight began over what was due to the barkeeper. Whitney was not certain as to who was the aggressor; he saw Smith strike Thomas after he fell.

Jackson Day at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 9.—Neither of Indiana's senators was present at the Jackson day banquet last night. Late in the afternoon a telegram of regret was received from Bourke Cockran. Five hundred were present. Gov. Matthews acted as master of ceremonies. Ex-Gov. Campbell of Ohio arrived at the last moment. Isaac P. Gray and other notable men were in attendance and made speeches. The day was generally celebrated in northern cities throughout the country.

Want Farmers to Organize.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 9.—The State Farmers' alliance met yesterday in Century hall with 100 delegates present. Ignatius Donnelly took up the time at the morning session with a long speech. H. B. Martin of the executive board of the Knights of Labor at the afternoon session asked the farmers to organize more thoroughly.

Afraid of Low Water.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 9.—The Lake Carriers' association devoted considerable time yesterday to the Chicago Drainage canal. In the end the president was ordered to ask the war department for a board of army engineers to consider how seriously lake levels would be affected by making a new outlet through Chicago.

Rich Strike by Poor Miners.

DEADWOOD, S. D., Jan. 9.—A twelve foot vein has been uncovered near here, the ore from which, after many assays, gives returns averaging from $1,500 to $3,700 per ton. The vein is well defined. The mine is owned by James Collins and Curley O'Leary, two poor miners, whom a chance "spot" in one moment has placed in affluence.

Celebration at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 9.—The Ladies' Hermitage association celebrated Jackson day last night with a reception and annual ball. The attendance included members of both houses of the legislature and Gov. Turney and staff.

Socialists to Protest.

BERLIN, Jan. 9.—Forty meetings of socialists and radicals have been called for Friday in order to protest against the passage of the anti-revolution bill for the reichstag.

Big Boom Breaks.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 9.—The Palestine boom up the Kanawha river has let go, and thousands of feet of ties, logs and lumber are at the mercy of the wind and water.

CABINET PLANS FAIL

The Hungarians Have Not Yet Reached a Decision.

VIENNA, Jan. 9.—All efforts to form a new Hungarian cabinet have failed.

DEBS LOCKED IN JAIL

A. R. U. Leaders Begin Their Terms at Woodstock, Ill.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway Union, and seven members of the executive committee, who were found guilty of contempt by Judge Woods of the United States court, were yesterday surrendered to the custody of Marshal Arnold and locked up. Counsel for the prisoners decided yesterday not to contest the case any further before the Circuit court, but will on Saturday of this week ask the United States Supreme court at Washington for a writ of habeas corpus.

PRESIDENT EUGENE V. DEBS.

On this application, whether it is granted or not, they will have the right to take an appeal and on this appeal may secure the liberation of the prisoners on bail, pending a hearing. Acting under the direction of Clerk Burnham, Mr. Pickard, his assistant, issued orders of commitment.

The cumulative sentence imposed on Debs was one year and on the other defendants six months.

Judge Woods said to-day that there was nothing more for him to do in the case, unless it came up before him on another motion in some manner. "The sentence of the court was pronounced some time ago," said Judge Woods, "and that sentence was stayed until yesterday. There is nothing further to be done except for the clerk to make out his commitments."

"This is the second commitment I have made out for illustrious citizens," said Clerk Pickard as he was writing the document which will hold Debs in jail for six months. "The other commitment was for Frank James, Jesse's brother and partner. That was done in Alabama, where Frank was before the United States court charged with robbing a paymaster. He was sent to jail because he could not give bail, but was acquitted on the trial."

The prisoners were taken to the McHenry county jail, Woodstock, Ill., last night.

INVESTIGATING THE RIOT.

Grand Jury at Washington Court House Hearing Evidence.

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio, Jan. 9.—The Fayette county grand jury is hearing evidence bearing upon the so-called riot of Oct. 17, when troops called out by Sheriff James F. Cook to protect William Dolby, a negro, killed five citizens and wounded twenty others. The coroner's verdict declared the killing unjustifiable and placed the responsibility upon Sheriff Cook and Col. A. B. Coit of Columbus, commander of the troops. It was the general belief here that Cook and Coit would be indicted for murder or manslaughter, but that impression has been somewhat dissipated since the names of the grand jurors were made public. The findings will not be published until Wednesday or Thursday.

M'INTYRE INAUGURATED.

Colorado's New Executive in Walter's Old Chair.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 9.—Gov. Waite went out of office and Gov. McIntyre came in yesterday. The simple ceremonies were witnessed by a large and distinguished audience. There was no procession. The incoming and outgoing governors rode together in a carriage from the capitol to the Tabor house, where the legislature had assembled in joint session. The oath was administered to Gov. McIntyre by Chief Justice Hayt. After ex-Gov. Waite had spoken a few words of farewell to his associates and of greeting to his successor Gov. McIntyre read his inaugural address.

BURKE LAUGHS AT IT.

Says Judge Ricks Had Nothing to Do with Ritchie's Case.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 9.—Judge Stevenson Burke laughed contemptuously when he read the charges contained in the memorial presented to congress by Samuel J. Ritchie yesterday. "Judge Ricks," he said, "had nothing whatever to do with the trial of the case in which Mr. Ritchie was interested. That case was heard and decided by Judge Lorton of Tennessee, and decided against Mr. Ritchie at every point and did not leave him a leg to stand on."

CAUCUS CANDIDATES WERE ALL ELECTEDBOTH HOUSES CONVENE AT MADISON AT NOON.

Senator Weeks in the Chair in the Senate and the Others Who Were Decided Upon Last Night Were Selected—Governor Upham's Message Comes Tomorrow.

MADISON, Jan. 9.—[Special].—Both houses of the legislature met at noon today. The caucus nominations were made and the republicans nominated were elected. Senator Weeks was called to the chair of the senate and in a speech thanked the senate for the honor conferred on him. The men elected were:

ASSEMBLY.

Speaker—G. B. Burrows of Madison.

Chief Clerk—W. A. Newell of Milwaukee.

Sergeant-at-Arms—B. F. Millard of Chippewa Falls.

Postmaster—D. H. Pulcifer of Shawano.

Governor Upham's message will be submitted tomorrow.

TO RELIEVE FARMERS.

Nebraska's Legislature Is at Work on Measures to Aid Them.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 9.—In the senate yesterday Senator Caldwell asked leave to withdraw his resolution giving precedence to relief missions and authorizing county commissioners to take such steps as are necessary to enable them to relieve want in their counties, and offering to the commissioners to legalize such acts as may necessarily be done by the county boards in this matter. The same resolution was immediately introduced by Senator Caldwell, with a motion that the rules be suspended and the resolution passed. Caldwell contended for immediate action on the ground that the occasion demanded it. The resolution was referred to the relief committee. A bill was also introduced authorizing counties to vote bonds to provide seed for farmers in the drouth stricken districts.

COUNTY BUILDING GUARDED.

Fear an Attempt to Burn the Records at El Reno, Kan.

WICHITA, Kan., Jan. 9.—A guard of deputy sheriffs has been placed over the county building at El Reno by the commissioners of Canadian county, owing to a rumor that an attempt will be made to destroy the building and its records by fire. Charges of alleged wrongdoings have been made against the retiring county officials and the commissioners are now engaged in an investigation of the record which, it is reported, has brought to light confirmations of the suspicions.

Speaker of Illinois Legislature.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 9.—John Meyer of Cook county will be the speaker of the house. This matter was settled last night on the first ballot. There were 92 votes in the caucus, and 47 were required to make a nomination. Meyer got there with one to spare, receiving 48 votes, while White had 20, Needles 13 and Cochran 11. The selection of Meyer is said by the opponents of Senator Cullom to be a move in their favor. There is not much change in the senatorial situation. The democratic members of the house held a caucus at the St. Nicholas hotel and nominated Clayton E. Crafts of Cook for permanent speaker.

Mrs. Notsen Not Dead.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 9.—Ever since the failure to find the bodies of Mrs. Ida R. Notsen and her two children in the river there has been a growing suspicion she has not killed herself at all. Prof. Marble, superintendent of schools, who has all along contended that Mrs. Notsen was alive, has received a letter containing direct information regarding her whereabouts. Prof. Marble said he had written to his informant and hoped to learn something definite about the whereabouts of Mrs. Notsen within the next few days.

Bodies of Fire Victims Discovered.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 9.—The bodies of two of the victims of the Delavan house fire have been removed from the ruins. They were found in the cellar and were directly under the attic where the fifteen servants are supposed to have been caught by the rapid spread of the flames. There is no means of identifying the remains. It is supposed that the remains of all the victims will be found near the place where the two bodies were discovered.

Negro Miners Induced to Quit.

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Jan. 9.—All but six of the fifty negro miners who came here from Virginia a week ago to work in the Beaver Hill coal mine have quit work and were taken to Empire City by the white miners.

Railroad Shops Moved.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 9.—The Ohio River railroad shops were ordered moved yesterday. Rivermen look for thirty-six to forty feet of water here.

River Rising at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Jan. 9.—The river at noon yesterday began rising. It will continue for a day or two and may reach forty feet here by Thursday.

DR. SCOTT IS NAMED FOR VETERINARIAN

DR. E. D. ROBERTS WILL NOT GET THE PLUM.

He Had the Endorsement of Nearly Every Prominent Southern Wisconsin Republican, and Most of the Veterinarians in the State—The Offices Filled So Far.

Dr. E. D. Roberts will not be appointed state veterinary surgeon as that position has fallen to Dr. J. L. Scott of Beaver Dam. The appointment of Dr. Scott was a surprise, as it was supposed the place would be filled by Dr. Clute of Marinette, or Dr. E. D. Roberts. The change advances the chances of Luther B. Noyes of Marinette, to be labor commissioner.

The governor also appointed as aides-de-camp, W. B. Dutton, Racine; Harry S. Fuller, Milwaukee. Dutton is a well known Racine politician and Fuller was formerly prominent in military circles in Milwaukee.

Captain George Graham of Tomah, was also named as general inspector of small arms practice, with the rank of colonel.

Ralph Vernon was last night appointed treasury agent. The office is one of the best within the gift of the state, being worth about $4000 a year.

Several Janesville men are still waiting to hear from Madison in regard to their applications for positions under the administration. So far the appointment of L. E. Gettle of Evansville, as library clerk for the department of education; John L. Lynch of Avon, as capitol policeman and George Sale of this city, as a messenger are the only Rock county men who have been chosen. The following is a complete list of the appointments decided on up to the present writing:

Executive department—W. J. Anderson, private secretary, Milwaukee; C. N. Coon, Marshfield, executive clerk.

State department—John M. Ewing, assistant secretary of state, Milwaukee; Gilbert T. Vanderhook, chief clerk, Prentice; Edward Loew, bookkeeper, Milwaukee; John M. Nelson, assistant bookkeeper, Madison; Junius W. Hill, printing clerk, Chippewa Falls; W. W. Jones, filing clerk, Fox Lake; E. Haughton, Retreat; O. G. Loomis, Mauston; A. E. Koulst, Milwaukee; J. C. Boyle, Sparta; Ernest Kuehler, Milwaukee; George S. Reid, Lake Geneva, clerks.

In the Treasury Department.

Treasury department—C. M. Dow, assistant treasurer, Madison; Nicholas Konrad, bookkeeper, Milwaukee; Halford Erickson, West Superior; George V. Borchsenius, Baldwin; T. M. Purcell, Cumberland.

Law department—L. K. Luse, assistant attorney general, Stoughton. Department of education—C. L. Harper, assistant superintendent, Lancaster; W. H. Chandler, high school inspector, Sun Prairie; Frank T. Tucker, chief clerk, Oshkosh; L. E. Gettle, library clerk, Evansville; Winona Merrick, stenographer, Madison.

Railroad commissioner's department—Jerre C. Murphy, deputy, Madison.

Insurance commissioner's department—Emil Giljohan, deputy, Milwaukee; W. H. Glenz, messenger, Madison.

Department of public lands—Egert Wyman, chief clerk, Crandon; J. T. Huntington, assistant chief clerk, Delton; W. S. Hadden, Sun Prairie; W. H. Swift, Rice Lake, clerks.

Adjutant general's department—Captain Charles King, adjutant general, Milwaukee; Col. W. H. Patton, assistant adjutant general, Oshkosh; Col. E. Gray, pension clerk, Milwaukee.

Maj. Oscar Zwietusch, of Milwaukee, is to be quartermaster general, and Col. Caldwell, of Whitewater, assistant.

Col. Morley's Force.

Department of public property—C. E. Morley, superintendent, Babcock; John Price, assistant superintendent, Wonowoc; F. D. Eyerly bookkeeper, Neillsville. Other appointments in this department are: Messengers—William Reid, Dousman; E. V. Upham, Pardeeville; J. Scanlon, Memmonie; W. Evans, Onalaska; W. A. Owens, Dodgeville; M. Beach, Prairie du Chien; L. T. Hoffman, Sparta; C. C. Lincoln, Tomahawk; A. T. Tucker, Whitehall; T. P. Pettford, Oshkosh; C. M. Wright, Durand; Peter Hanson, Bloomingdale; Harvey McNichol, Shawano; Louis La Pine, Green Bay; Eugene M. Smith, Soldiers' Home.

Capitol police—J. L. Lynch, Avon, John Ashton, Alma Center; J. B. McCoy, Prairie du Sac.

Engineer—William C. Dean, Madison; John Longfield, fireman, Madison; E. Hickman, fireman, Milwaukee; C. Farley, fireman, Madison; W. J. McGee, state carpenter, Oconto; Charles Gussman of Madison, carpenter; M. Spaulding, of Blooming Grove, laborer; H. VanKulen, Madison, painter; George H. Smith, of Madison, janitor; J. Broadhurst, of Middleton, laborer; Orey Johnson, of Madison, watchman; William Southoff, of Madison, carpet man; Charles Oleson of Madison, janitor; and John Abaly, J. Jchemerhorn M. S. J. A. White, Mrs. Erbe, Mrs. M. O. Klein, Mrs. Mora and Mrs. Bradley, all of Madison on the labor force.

Five Good Places Left.

There are several appointments in the land office not yet filled. Secretary of State Casson and Treasurer Peterson are awaiting the arrival of Ator-ey General Mylrea before determining he remaining appointments.

Three of the best places within the gift of the governor have not been filled or at least the slated candidates have not yet been announced. They are the positions of labor commissioner, dairy and food commissioner and state fish and game warden.

The appointment of Mr. Vernon as treasury agent ends a remarkable contest, in which the other contestant was H. C. Adams, who wants to be food and dairy commissioner. It has seemed to be thought that both could not be appointed, since they both reside in Dane county, and the appointment of one was to be taken as the defeat of the other. According to that view, Mr. Adams is defeated, but it is whiped today that he may be appointed anyway—in time. Believing Mr. Adams to be shelved, the other candidates will now push to the front. It is said that W. W. Chadwick of Monroe, H. K. Loomis of Sheboygan Falls and Everett of Beloit now stand well in the front.

COLD WEATHER AT THE GROVE.

The Thermometer Has Been as Far Down as Sixteen Degrees Below.

EMERALD GROVE, Jan. 9.—It has been from 12 to 16 degrees below zero here and our light falls of snow has brought us no sleighing. Thomas Hanlon and son John of LaPrairie called on Monday. Gillies & Jones are investigating the rest of stock of general merchandise as is their custom during the month of January. Mrs. J. S. Wright's condition remains about the same. Miss Edith M. Barlass daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barlass was quiet all last week with pneumonia but is now improving fast, also the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkpatrick. Prayer meeting of the Congregational church in the lecture room on Wednesday evening. Subject, "The Only Way to Make Life New." Business meeting Christian Endeavor Saturday evening at 7:30, meeting of the executive committee 6:30 Saturday. The following officers were elected for the Congregational Sunday school for the ensuing year: Superintendent, Miss Jennie McArthur; assistant superintendent, Oscar Hanson; secretary and treasurer, Miss Nettie Butler; assistant secretary and treasurer, Miss Flora Boynton; organist, Miss Janet McArthur; assistant organist, Miss Laverna Gillies; leader of singing, G. H. Hammond. The third number in the Christian Endeavor Entertainment course will occur Friday evening, January 12, at 7:30 p. m., a literary prize oratorical contest, interspersed with music. The contestants are Messrs. Charles Boynton, Oscar Hanson, C. E. Smith, John McArthur and Charles Doubleday.

Wedding at Center.

CENTER, Jan. 9.—A very pleasant wedding occurred at the residence of H. Hastings in the town of Plymouth on Thursday evening, December 27, it being the marriage of his daughter Rosalie Hastings to Henry Pepper of Center. Both the bride and groom have many friends in Center who extend hearty congratulations. The sale of stock and farm implements at A. L. Fisher's was largely attended last Thursday. Farmers are now praying for a little wet tobacco weather. Mrs. H. E. Boot, who has dangerously sick for the past ten days was reported as resting easier at this writing. The young people of Center who are members of the literary club have prepared an elaborate program for Wednesday evening, January 9, at the church. It consists of musical and literary numbers to conclude with a short play entitled "Judge Snyder's Court." Admission will be 10 cents which will be donated to the church. William Grunzel is lying at the point of death at his home one mile west of the post office. The Wright Bros are the first to deliver their 1895 crop of tobacco, having sold to Pepper of Footville. School commenced this week and we are pleased to have our teacher, C. Hemmingsway with us again, although he has made regular visits here all the vacation. George Case and wife from Jefferson county spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. H. H. Boot.

News of Porter Town.

PORTER, Jan. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. James McCormick of Austin, Minn., are here visiting relatives and old friends. Miss Minnie Ford arrived home last Saturday, after a two months' stay in the west. Miss Nora Lay has gone back to Janesville to work after having spent the holidays at her parental home. A very pleasant time was spent by all who attended the dance in Fulton Friday evening. The same club give another on January 18. All are cordially invited. Miss Nellie Donehue of Janesville is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Lay. A gentleman pressed through here last week collecting for the sufferers in Nebraska. He had a large load of corn given by a number of farmers, which he was going to dispose of and send the proceeds to the needy. Miss Abbie McCarthy is meeting with excellent success in the management of her school in the Frog Pond district. Skating seems to be the craze here this winter, but the slight snow storm put an end to it for the time being. Charles and Jud McCarthy delivered their '92 crop of tobacco in Edgerton last Friday at 11 1/2 cents a pound. John Burns has purchased a farm of 120 ac. near Oregon, on which place he will reside in the very near future. The farmers prepared to pay their taxes may do so, by calling on B. Towns before January 10, after which time he will be on the road.

KNIGHTS IN BLACK ENTER THE LISTS

EIGHTY PYTHIANS ON A BALL ROOM FLOOR.

Annual Reception of Oriental Lodge No. 22, Proves a Success in Every Respect—Names of Those Who Were Privileged To Share the Pleasures of the Evening.

Eighty Sir Knights strove for the smiles of fair ladies last night. Their jousting field was the Armory; their herald Sir Knight E. C. Burdick, and their accoutrements sable not steel. Blue pennons marked the marshals—Sir Knights Carter, Sloan, Sayles, Baldwin and Porter—but this touch of color was lost among the hues of silks, satins and bunches of bloom. And so it was that while the eighty cavaliers were garbed most soberly, the charm of the ladies made the scene a constantly shifting vision of beauty.

Once a year Oriental Lodge, No. 22, Knights of Pythias leaves the lodge room for the field of social glory. Success has never been lacking, but never has there been an affair more enjoyable than last night's. The floor was well filled, handsome toilettes lent brilliancy and Johnny Smith never bobbed his head in tune to better music than his eleven men furnished. Dancing began early but that doesn't mean that it ended early. Before 9 o'clock a waltz sounded and not until 2 were good nights said. Supper was served upstairs by Caterer Shurtleff several novelties being offered in the menu. The refreshments evoked many compliments.

Old and young shared the pleasure of the evening. Four generations were represented on the floor, and the youngest were by no means the most indefatigable. Among the guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames—L. B. Carle, W. R. Conrad, F. E. Welch, O. C. Ford, F. J. Stevens, John Thoroughgood, T. S. Nolan, F. D. Vandewater, L. H. Becker, A. L. Kavelle, B. H. Baldwin, W. W. Porter, E. Deaths' Hand Was Laid On

Edwin Scofield. At twenty minutes to 6 o'clock New Years morning Edwin Scofield, one of Rock county's pioneers, passed away. His death was not caused by sickness, but it seemed as if his life sands had run out, and he died without a struggle, in the eighty-ninth year of his age. The funeral was held at the house at 1 o'clock Thursday, and the remains were deposited in Fasset cemetery.

Mr. Scofield was born in the town of Hadley, Saratoga county, N. Y., Nov. 26, 1806, where he lived until 1846, where by industry and rigid economy he accumulated a little property and moved to Wisconsin, intending to buy land, but found that he had placed too much confidence in a supposed friend, whom he had left back east to settle up his business and that he was left in a wild new country with a large family to support, with no money and few friends. So instead of buying land he had to start by working land on shares and accordingly rented a portion of the Stone farm where he lived nine years. He then moved to Indian Ford where he has since resided.

Mr. Scofield never succeeded in piling up much of this world's goods but could boast of being honorable and upright and could look the world in the face and say that he never wronged anybody. He was an earnest believer in the religion of Jesus Christ and at an early age united with the Baptist church. He was also a strong advocate of temperance. Mr. Scofield was twice married and was the father of twelve children six of whom are now living, three sons and three daughters. He always enjoyed good health and never was confined to the house by sickness a day in his life until three days before his death. He retained his mental faculties and during the present winter could discuss as understandingly as men who were in the prime of life. He spent most of his time reading and his memory was remarkably good.

FIREMAN SLIGHTAM WAS COOL

Did a Job in Ten Minutes That Old Hands Said Required an Hour.

The railroad men are telling a story on Fireman Charles Slightam, of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. Mr. Slightam was firing engine No. 542, and was taking the big machine out of the Prairie du Chien round house preparatory to taking the day express east. The steam gauge showed but forty pounds of steam, and the air reservoir had little or no pressure on, therefore of no immediate use. Carefully the engine was given steam, then slowly rolled ahead. The track was on a down-grade and greasy from a heavy fog, and despite the fireman's efforts to stop it at the right spot, the engine slid off the end of the rails and the front trucks sank into the sand.

Two or three engineers with some others witnessed the accident, and remarked that the day express for that day would be delayed for an hour at least, but the cool fireman, who is also a machinist, manifested no apparent alarm. He turned on the blower, put on his overalls, lit his pipe and requested two wipers to bring out a pair of jacks and after giving them instructions what to do he stepped back onto the cab and got the oil can and carefully oiled all around. By this time the regulation one hundred and forty pound of steam had been attained and he then examined the jacks and once more climbed back into the cab, threw the machine into the back motion, pulled the throttle and old 542 slid back onto the table like a thing of life. He had done his work well and with a coolness that was icy, and in the incredible short time of ten minutes, despite the fact that old engineers said it would take an hour.

THE PLUMBERS PLAN A BOYCOTT

Janesville Represented at the State Association's Meeting in Milwaukee.

Janesville was represented at the Master Plumbers association of Wisconsin which met at Milwaukee yesterday by R. C. Yoemans. The association was formed at a meeting held yesterday at the St. Charles hotel, and today resolutions were considered practically declaring a boycott on all wholesale dealers in plumbing supplies who sell to others than master plumbers, and against all journeymen and plumbers who place in buildings material bought by consumers of manufacturers. The newly formed association will ask the legislature to correct laws that will prevent any person not a practical plumber holding a license, from doing plumbing work in any town having a population of over 5,000. The association is made up of master plumbers of Wisconsin, who are desirous of promoting friendly business relations, as well as a fraternal spirit of social union among the members of the trade in general, by all legitimate and honorable means. About fifty plumbers from outside the city were present at the opening sessions, and more were expected today.

LIMA MUTUAL COMPANY'S REPORT

Total Insurance Was $374,150 and the Losses of the Year $37.

The annual meeting of the Lima Mutual Fire Insurance company was held at Lima Center yesterday. The former board of directors was reelected as follows: William Alexander, C. B. Palmer, Fred Gould, W. J. McCord and Rice Kimble of whom the first three gentlemen named were made president, surveyor and secretary respectively. The secretary's report gave the outstanding insurance on the 31 of December as $373,150. Insurance in 1894 $106,200. Losses of the past year $37.

Our Uncle Dudley Coming.

"Our Uncle Dudley" which holds the boards of the Grand next Thursday has been secured by Manager Stoddard after repeated negotiations and will be presented as a special attraction. This is the piece which enjoyed the long and sensational run at the Bijou, New York, last season under the title of "Charlie's Uncle," where it was pronounced by press and public to be one of the finest comedies ever given in that city. It is built after the style of "Private Secretary" or "Trip to Chinatown," but fortunate for its managers has been conceded far superior to either of these. Our Janesville boy W. R. ("Dick") McKey has developed theatrical talent and is a member of the company. Critics have pronounced him one of the leading people and his many friends will be glad to welcome him back in such a praiseworthy position.

SCHOOL BOARD ASK FOR MORE MONEY

THEY ADVOCATE A CHANGE IN THE CHARTER.

President Goldin and Clerk Cunningham Appointed a Special Committee To See What Can Be Done in That Line—New Teachers Are Hired—Money Paid Out.

The board of education has finally realized that the public schools cannot be kept up to the standard demanded with the limited appropriations of the city charter. The question was discussed at an adjourned meeting of the board last evening. The fund set apart for the schools like all other funds, is far too small to meet the increasing demands upon it, and the board by unanimous vote, will ask that some amendment be made by which sufficient funds can be raised. Last evening the board appointed the president and clerk a special committee to attend to this matter and secure the proper amendments.

Miss Emma Constock, Miss Kittie Conway, Miss Ida Conway were employed as regular teachers for the ensuing year and Miss Spear was given a regular position as teacher in the sixth grade of the Washington school, these appointments being on recommendation of the committee on teachers.

Bills aggregating $116 48 were allowed on the regular fund, and $2,442 to Clark & Stewart from the high school building fund. No other business of importance was considered.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1757—Bernard de Fontenelle, French philosophical writer, died; born 1657.
 1848—Caroline Lucretia Herschel, astronomer, died; born 1781.
 1873—Napoleon III, ex-emperor of France, died in exile at Chislehurst, England.
 1885—Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines, the famous litigant in the New Orleans claims case, died in New Orleans; born 1807. The Gaines case was one of the noted claims of the century and involved not alone money consideration, but the reputation of a family. Mrs. Gaines was the wife of a distinguished general in the regular army and the daughter of Daniel Clark, who named her in a will as the sole heir of his large estate. The legitimacy of her birth was questioned, but proof was found that her father declared her so, and also of a private marriage. The property claimed was in possession of the city of New Orleans and amounted to $35,000,000 in 1861. Up to 1874 Mrs. Gaines had received $6,000,000.
 1890—Hon. William Darrah Kelley, Pennsylvania congressman, affectionately known as the "father of the house," died at Washington.

A COSTLY ERROR

The democrats abolished the reciprocity policy simply because of its republican origin. They supposed in their eagerness to destroy protection that foreign nations would welcome free trade conditions and go on buying our products in the absence of the special favors that had been granted to them under the McKinley law. But it is not evident that these nations are not going to continue the plan of giving special privileges to our commerce when we refused to do as much for them. The abrogation of the reciprocity treaties on our part is interpreted as an unfriendly proceeding, and retaliation is ensuing on account of it. Thus we have a plain and significant object lesson in the matter of the practical working of the democratic scheme of tariff reform. The European countries that formerly took large quantities of our products at good prices, because we gave them certain advantages in the marketing of their products in this country, are closing their ports against us and transferring their trade to our competitors. All the gains that were made for our commerce while the reciprocity policy was in operation have been forfeited, and a penalty of additional injury is being inflicted upon us for the abrupt and inconsiderate way in which bargains of mutual concessions and benefits were broken by our congress. The people will not fail to comprehend the meaning of this misfortune, and the necessity of taking power away from the party that is responsible for such a serious wrong.

THE CURRENCY AND THE REVENUE

The democrats would gain more favor in their crusade for currency reform if they were disposed to deal candidly with the matter. They insist that the depletion of the gold reserve is due to the redemption of greenbacks over and over again, and that the currency system is, therefore, to blame for the misfortune. This is not true, as everybody knows who has an intelligent understanding of the facts in the case. The redemption of greenbacks has been going on ever since January 1, 1879. Throughout this period of sixteen years the same condition has existed that is now declared to be the source of a grave financial trouble. The reserve was maintained until a recent time—that is to say, until the democratic party obtained full control of the government and began to manifest its incapacity for the work which it was thus intrusted. So long as republican rule lasted there was no difficulty in that relation; and yet the "godless chain" that Cleveland speaks of was in constant operation.

It is quite likely, as a senator Davis says, that the war between China and Japan will have the effect of directing attention to the importance of those two countries as markets for American products; but it is not reasonable to look for an extension of our foreign trade in any direction under a tariff law that provokes general hostility and retaliation.

The reports of the condition of the national banks at the conclusion of business December 19 indicate a plentiful supply of money, which will begin to be invested in business enterprises as soon as the present congress gets out of the way.

Governor Morton recommends a policy of retrenchment and economy in New York, and the republican legislature will heartily co-operate with him in that method of making the people glad that they turned the democrats out.

The treasury deficit for December is $5,260,324, making an aggregate of $2,564,465 for the first half of the current fiscal year. These figures show at a glance what democratic rule does for government.

It is entirely safe to say that a majority of the American people are not in favor of any currency plan that proposes to substitute doubtful money for that which is absolutely reliable.

New York has been paying democrats $40,000,000 per year for her municipal government, and the investment yields a smaller profit than any other in the country.

Cleveland will stand by Carlisle, of course; but who will stand by Cleveland?

MARZLUFF &amp; CO'S,

Shoes at Cost.

$3,000 to be sold by February 1,
 By Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Until we commenced to cut prices on shoes almost a year ago, the shoe business in this city had been a monopoly, and you have paid monopoly prices for your shoes. We are not afraid of competition, we challenge it, and thus far not a single instance have our competitors dared to meet (they say) our "ruinously low prices." We will stay in Janesville, not to move to Aurora, and we will fight to give the people of Janesville the best shoes for less money than they ever paid before. We have no fear and ask no favors. If you can buy stylish, quality guaranteed shoes and foot furnishings at any other store as cheaply as you can of us, Don't Trade Here.

We are entitled to your patronage because our store and our progressive methods are bound to benefit the city. It is to your interest to foster competition, not to crush it. You can help us make our store an ideal establishment where a poor man, as well as the wealthy can dress his feet in fashionable, dependable apparel at prices that he has heretofore been paying for trash. Marzluff & Co., refused to sell us any more, so we will close out what we have of the stock, $3,000 worth at what we paid the factory.

HON. FENNER KIMBALL ROBBED.
Lost His Pocket Book When Governor Upham's Stud Was Stolen.

Governor Upham, who lost a diamond stud worth $150 was not the only man who was robbed at Madison during the inauguration ceremonies. Assemblyman Fenner Kimball did not go up with any other ambition than to faithfully represent his constituency. He had no ambition for place or fame but he got some experience, they say, that he wasn't looking for. The "gentleman from Rock" was in the general jam at the reception and while all were "in the push," some Chicago light-fingered gentleman pushed his hand into Mr. Kimball's pocket, subtracting a pocket book. It was lucky for the Janesville member that he had taken the precaution to place his currency in another and safer place, consequently he only lost with the pocket book a few clippings from the newspapers, of no particular value. It is reported that one or two other Rock county men were relieved of their pocket books, but they are keeping still and denying the soft impeachment. The pickpockets who did the work were said to have come from Chicago, and were as skilled a lot of "dippers" as ever worked. Many people were robbed who said nothing about it to the police.

ODD FELLOWS INSTALL OFFICERS

STOOD 'NEATH CUPID'S SHRINE.
Johnson—Conger.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. David Conger, 205 Washington street was the scene of a happy social event at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jessie Conger, and Walter R. Johnson of the C. M. & St. P. freight office. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. M. G. Hodge of the Baptist church, and only the families of the interested parties and a few intimate friends were present. After partaking of a wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left for a brief tour in Milwaukee and Chicago, they intending to return the last of the week. The groom is the popular cashier in the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul freight office, and is a young gentleman who has made many warm friends in Janesville, since coming here a few years ago. The bride is a young lady graduate of the high school, possessing all the accomplishments required to make her own home one that the sun will shine brightly upon. Many friends will wish them joy.

Foot Light of the Body.

Compression of the throat, the chest, and the feet act injuriously upon the eyes, therefore, if to meet the demands of fashion tight neck-cloths, corsets, and shoes must be worn in public, they should be loosened when the pen, the book, the needle, is taken in hand.

After great bodily fatigue, or during mental distress, late at night when one is sleepy, or after a sleepless night, the eyes should not be taxed. It is common for convalescents to read much during their recovery. In this way the term of convalescence is often prolonged, and the eyes sometimes permanently injured.

When such is the case consult W. F. Hayes, at F. C. Cook & Co's., opposite the post office. He is an expert in fitting the eye.

DARBY DIDN'T CARE
FOR HIS CHILDRENPATHETIC SCENE IN JUDGE
SALE'S COURT ROOM.

Spectators Shed Tears While Trampish Father, Who Hails from Beloit, Where He Lived on Charity, Didn't Seem To Care What Became of His Two Little Girls.

There was a pathetic scene in the county court this morning which caused even Judge Sale to feel for his handkerchief, while tears trickled down the hardened cheeks of spectators. Two little girls, one three years old, the other five, stood before Judge Sale waiting his decision on an application to be sent to the Sparta school.

They had been robbed by death of a kind mother's care. Their father, indolent, unkept, poorly and dirtily clad and having the appearance of a forlorn tramp at the breaking up of a hard winter, stood before the bar, indifferent as to the disposition of the tender little offsprings. They had been brought up from Beloit by Marshal Appleby. The father and two little girls had been living in a little room, where the indolent parent appeared willing the good people of Beloit should clothe and feed them. The man's hair, had the appearance of not being acquainted with a comb for months and he was the most forlorn looking specimen of humanity that had been in the court room since the removal of the municipal court therefrom. His name is Frank Darby, and the little girls were christened Hattie and Sarah. They were given a home at Sparta, and the indifferent parent went back to the Line City.

Pande Face Powder.

Possesses an odor which is delightful, and from the person of one who uses this exquisite powder there is emitted a perfume—faint, delicate, hardly perceptible but yet thoroughly characteristic—a perfume which fills the surrounding atmosphere with a delightful and enchanting fragrance which is inexpressibly charming.

Before using the powder take a chamois skin—the oil dressed French skins are the best—and simply rub the face. The soft chamois cleans the face, removes any oily appearance and leaves a peach-like tint upon the skin. Powder should be applied artistically—such tint being used as blends harmoniously with the complexion, and for this reason Pande powder is manufactured in three shades—white, flesh and brunette. It is packed in 25 cent boxes and sold by PRENTICE & EVENSEN.

Funeral of Francis Dano.

The remains of Francis Dano were buried in Oak Hill this afternoon. Funeral services were held at the home, 58 North Jackson street, at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge of the Baptist church conducted the services, assisted in the song service by a quartet consisting of Mrs. C. E. Moser, Miss Mary Wilcox, William Bledon and C. N. Vankirk. There was a large attendance and many friends accompanied the funeral party to the grave, the pall bearers being J. C. Fredendall, Robert Pollock, Mark Honebsett, Washington Kelly, L. A. Whiffin and William Eller.

Swallowed Her Shawl-Pin.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Maud Fries, 14 years old, the daughter of Charles Fries, proprietor of the Brighton hotel at Millville, N. J., yesterday swallowed a long shawl-pin. The pin slipped down her throat and appears to have lodged far down in the stomach. She suffers great pain. The removal of the pin will require the opening of the stomach.

Officials Under a Cloud.

ESCANABA, Mich., Jan. 9.—The scandal involving Chief of Police Ehnard has been followed by sensational charges involving the common council and a majority of the executive officers of the city. The charges cover nearly everything from winking at crime to sharing its proceeds.

Massillon Drivers Strike.

MASSILLON, Ohio, Jan. 9.—Few of the Massillon mines worked yesterday. This was due to the fact that the drivers have struck for more wages. At one time the drivers received $2.05 a day, but according to the decision of the board of arbitration they are to be cut down to $1.60. This, they say, they will not accept and will not resume unless they receive $1.75.

Huntsville College Burns.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Jan. 9.—The Huntsville female college was destroyed by fire yesterday. All of the girls were rescued and most of their belongings saved. James Gillespie was struck on the back by a piano thrown from the upper story and seriously injured. Loss, $40,000; insurance, $25,000.

Senators From Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 9.—In caucus last evening the republican members of the Wyoming legislature unanimously selected ex-Speaker Francis E. Warren senator for the long term and Congressman Clarence D. Clark senator for the short term.

Tricks in Shoes.

Most men measure the life of shoes by the number of times they get them half soled. Manufacturers of medium and cheap grades take advantage of this fact and put on soles that soon wear out. The tops survive the soles, a considerable time. The wearer imagines that he has found a durable brand of shoes and probably asks for it again when he is ready for another pair.

SHE DANCED WITH THE GOVERNORS
Mrs. F. W. Wheelock Was in the Executive Set at Madison.

Mrs. F. W. Wheelock was one of the belles of the inaugural ball, she dancing in the set composed of Governor Upham and Mrs. Gen. Fairchild, Ex-Governor Peck and Mrs. Wheelock and Atty Gen. and Mrs. Mylrea. This set was the focus point of thousands of eyes and some of the more critical ones remarked that both governors appeared to be a little out of practice as dancers. Governor Upham got helplessly mixed up at times, but was cheerful all the while and took comfort out of the fact that Mr. Peck was not traveling through the "intricate mazes" of the quadrille in a fashion any cleverer than himself. Many and laughable were the criticism passed upon the governor's set, which was not up to the terpsichorean standard fixed by the crowd.

WANTS THE CITY TO BE A CITY.

Prominent Democrat Says That Conditions Need a Little Changing.

"If the city has outgrown village regulations why not change them," remarked a prominent democrat the other day. "If they can't get money enough to run the town under the present charter, let's change it. No man would run his business when the utgo was more than his income, and why should the city? I am in favor of making a city a city not a city a village or a village a city."

A DOUBLE PUPIL.

He Attended the Same Class Under Two Names.

This interesting story grew out of the fact that there was a silent syllable in the small Louisville boy's name, which the unknowing generally pronounced. The small boy started to a new school a little over a month ago. To the principal he spelled out his name in full as his. When he had been in class for several days his teacher enrolled his name as it was pronounced, for all the children called the boy by that name.

Every morning when she called the roll she read the boy's name as she had gotten it from the principal and as she had written it herself. She thought the names belonged to different persons. The boy would answer to both the names. The class was so large that the teacher did not notice her mistake for some time. It was the same during recitations. The boy had to recite for both names. But all things have an end and the conclusion to this peculiar case occurred several days ago. It was when the reports of what each pupil had done during the past month were made out. The boy's mother was greatly surprised to receive two reports of two different scholars. One of the reports was made out in her son's name in full, and the other in the name of a syllable short. The laughable feature of the case was that the average in the report of the shortened name was forty per cent in excess of that received by the other. The mother went to the school and had an interview with the teacher. The matter was finally explained to the amusement of all concerned. Now the boys say that his real name is the short one. In explaining about the average the teacher said when the boy was called on to recite the second time he probably became careless since he had answered the questions a few minutes before, and that, therefore, his average with the long name was made lower.

Wants Gladstone to Take It Back.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The correspondent of the Standard at Constantinople telegraphs that he has heard that the sultan formally requested Great Britain to disavow the speech recently made by Mr. Gladstone to the Anglo-Armenian deputation that visited him at Hawarden.

Court House at Decatur, Texas, Burns.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 9.—The court house at Decatur was destroyed by fire yesterday. Several business houses were also burned. The county records were destroyed. Loss, $100,000; insurance, $60,000.

Legal Holiday at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 9.—Yesterday being the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, a legal holiday, banks, courts and the city hall were closed and Jackson square was decorated with flags. A national salute was fired at noon.

BAD BOYS RAN AWAY,
BUT "PA" PURSUEDSKATES AND A HAND CAR AID
ED THEIR FLIGHT.

Christian Ekha, of Oakland, Jefferson County, Thought His Wayward Son Was Here, But the Police Could Not Find Them, so Ekha Went Home Again.

Skates and hand cars helped Charles Ekha of Oakland, Jefferson county, and John Rhodie, of McGregor, Iowa, who was visiting Ekha, to run away from home yesterday, and that's why Christian Ekha, father of one of the lads, and City Marshal Springer of Edgerton, came to Janesville last night in search of them. The two boys were aged 17 and 13 years respectively. They left Oshkosh early in the morning and walked to the river. Then they buckled on their skates and started for Edgerton on the ice. By the time they reached that city they were tired of walking and skating so they appropriated a hand-car and went to Milton. From the latter place they were supposed to have come here so Mr. Ekha, who had followed them to Edgerton got the marshal and came down. They conferred with Chief Acheson, but the boys were not found here.

"I just want to see dose boy of mine" said Mr. Ekha excitedly, "long enough until I tell him somedings; if him few tollar and tell him to be a goot boy and go tell!"

Iowa Saloon Men's Tenure.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 9.—The saloon men are in greater doubt than ever as to their tenure of business. Judge Spurrier sustained the state's demurrer to the motion to quash on the theory that the act of the auditor in accepting their petition constituted a recognition of its validity. This throws the burden on the saloons to prove that their petition is valid. Some saloons are talking of a new petition.

DOCTORS.
Die of the Disease of Which They Make a Specialty.
"In one of your stories in 'Round the Red Lamp,' doctor," said the reporter to Conan Doyle, "you say through the medium of Surgeon Walker that a doctor generally dies with the disease that he is especially interested in and has investigated thoroughly. Were you quite in earnest when you made that statement?"
"I am glad you asked that question," rejoined Mr. Doyle. "The story you mention, though it has been called horrible and other startling names by the critics, is the result of a large number of years of medical practice. I am thoroughly of the opinion that imagination as regards the existence of a disease can affect a doctor as well as the most susceptible of his patients. The story in question relates the life of Surgeon Walker, one of the greatest specialists in nervous diseases in the United Kingdom. He addresses the students in the clinic on a horrible form of nervous disease and concludes his lecture by saying that the only method to determine the evidence of the disease is to close the eyes and endeavor to bring the heels together."
"Surgeon Walker suits the action to the word, but he finds it impossible, and the terrible truth is flashed to his mind that he is afflicted with the very disease he is explaining and which is a lingering one, and in the way of exquisite torture could discount seven times any form of torture germinating in the agile brain of the Apache or Sioux Indians. The story is dramatic in way of climax, for such a position could not be otherwise than horrible. The critics have said that I was stretching my imagination too far and all that, but the story is founded on something more substantial than mere fancy. It has been the result of my observation that a great per cent of physicians and surgeons die of the very disease which they have so sedulously studied and investigated. I am glad that you asked that question, as I wanted the statement emphasized."

AND HE DIED.
The Old Man Met His Fate in That Small Still Voice.
She was a typewriter. Of course she was pretty. A typewriter that isn't pretty is as rare as a hen that isn't a chicken or a circle that isn't round. Nobody ever saw one—at least, who lived to write about it.
He was the senior member of the firm, but susceptible, for all that. He was smitten. He wanted to ask her a few tender questions. He dared not commit them to paper, oh no! He dared not speak aloud for fear some of the weasel-eared clerks or junior partners would catch on and squeal.
For three days he thought, then hit upon a plan. He would inveigle her into the soundproof telephone closet.
He did so. "Little dear," he pleaded there, "will you go to the opera to-night with me and for a little supper afterward? Don't refuse me, I will promise you a glorious time."
The sweet girl blushed. Oh, it was indeed a temptation. She tried to speak. What her answer was no one shall ever know; for just at that instant there was a buzz at the telephone. With pallid face and trembling hands the senior drew the phone to his ear and heard a familiar voice from afar: "Yes, dear, thank you. Come home early. I will be ready on time!"
The doctors called it heart failure. But the wife and the little blond typewriter knew more than these wise men.

Mendacity vs. Ignorance.
Mr. Van Bullion—Is your mistress in?
Bidy—Sure, and O'll see, sor. (Returning in a few moments.) No, sor, she ain't, sor, but she wants ter know when yez'll be after calling agin, sor.—Truth.
Won't Wear 'Em.
Aunt Jane—Well, Fan, it's a vulgar expression, but do you intend to "wear the trousers" after you are married?
Fan de Cycle (soon to be a bride)—No, auntie; I have promised Theodore to give up my wheel altogether.—Puck.
Payment in Advance.
His Mother—What did you hit Tommy Jones for?
Johnny—So's to get even with him for hitting me.
His Mother—But he didn't hit you.
Johnny—Yes, but some time he will.—Chicago Record.

"Hope Crushed to Earth"
Will rise again in the bosom of a dyspeptic wise enough to substitute for the rhenoderms, which have bamboozled him out of his belief in the possibility of cure, the real invigorant and stimulant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The bilious, the nervous, the dyspeptic, the rheumatic alike derive speedy benefit from this helpful bitters. Persons suffering from indigestion will gain no positive permanent good from the fiery unmediated stimulants of commerce, too often used recklessly. The Bitters is immeasurably, to be preferred to these as a tonic, since its pure basis is modified by the conjunction with it of vegetable ingredients of the highest remedial excellence. Malaria is prevented and remedied by it, and it infuses vigor into the weak and sickly. A wineglassful three times a day is the average dose.

"Yield Not to Misfortune."
I was afflicted with catarrh last autumn. During the month of October I could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus Geo. Shautz, Rahway, N. J.
I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill. Cream Balm is agreeable.

Not a Safe Juryman.
"I should like to be excused, your honor," said a man who had been summoned on the jury.
"What for?"
"I owe a man ten dollars and wish to hunt him up and pay it."
"Do you mean to tell the court that you would hunt up a man to pay a bill instead of waiting for him to hunt you up?"
"Yes, your honor."
"You are excused. I don't want any man on the jury that will lie like that."—Boston Commercial Bulletin.
The Latest Version.
"Speaking of miraculous escapes," said Smith, "young Brown was shot full in the chest the other day, and yet was unharmed."
"Mother's Bible in his pocket?" said Robinson.
"Pack of cards, more likely," remarked Jones.
"You are not up-to-date," said Smith. "The bullet struck him in the chrysalis antheum!"—Life.
Discouraging Road Agents.
Traveler (angrily)—Why don't you railroad men do something to put a stop to train robbing?
Railroad Magnate—That is just what we are working at now.
"Glad to hear it."
"Yes; we are thinking of raising fares, so that the passengers won't have enough left to tempt train-robbers."—N. Y. Weekly.
A Superstition Vindicated.
"Tell me the worst," said the candidate's wife.
"I was defeated by thirteen thousand votes."
"There! Didn't I always tell you thirteen was an unlucky number?"—Washington Star.

Special Tax Notice.
Notice is hereby given that the warrant for the collection of the special assessment for paving West Milwaukee street between High and Academy streets and East Milwaukee street between Main and Division streets, in the city of Janesville, is now in my hands for collection, and that I will receive the same at the office of the city treasurer until January 10, 1895, after which I shall proceed to collect the same as the law directs.

you we will sell

Groceries at Wholesale Cost

To Us, For One Day Only,
Saturday, January 12.

It is useless to name prices, there is not a person in the land but knows what coffee, tea, sugar, flour, bacon, ham, eggs, butter, lard, soap, and everything to be found in a grocery is worth. We will for one day, Saturday, Jan. 12, sell at prime cost to us. NO FAKE, NO PROFIT. We can stand it for one day. Come, see and believe. Be your own judge. If you don't find everything in the house at wholesale cost next Saturday, don't buy.
